

Word	Meaning
Aberration	A departure from what is normal or expected.
Capricious	Changing moods or behavior suddenly and unpredictably.
Debilitate	To make weak or feeble.
Ephemeral	Lasting a very short time.
Flippant	Not showing a serious or respectful attitude.
Gregarious	Sociable; enjoying the company of others.
Heterogeneous	Diverse in character or content.
Impervious	Unable to be affected by.
Juxtapose	Place side by side for comparison.
Kinetic	Relating to motion.
Labyrinthine	Complicated and confusing; like a maze.
Maelstrom	A powerful whirlpool; a state of turmoil.
Nebulous	Vague or unclear.
Obfuscate	To make unclear or difficult to understand.
Pernicious	Having a harmful effect.
Quixotic	Unrealistically idealistic.
Recalcitrant	Resistant to authority or control.
Sycophant	A person who flatters for personal gain.
Trepidation	A feeling of fear or agitation.
Utilitarian	Designed to be useful rather than attractive.
Vex	To annoy or worry.
Winsome	Attractive or charming.
Xenophobia	Dislike of foreigners.
Yoke	A burden or something that oppresses.
Zealous	Enthusiastic and eager.
Acquiesce	To accept without protest.
Belligerent	Hostile and aggressive.
Chicanery	Trickery or deception.
Disseminate	To spread widely, especially information.
Esoteric	Understood by only a small, specialized group.
Furtive	Secretive; attempting to avoid notice.
Hapless	Unfortunate; unlucky.
Iconoclast	A person who challenges or overturns traditional beliefs.
Jejune	Naive, simplistic, and superficial.
Licentious	Promiscuous and unprincipled.
Morose	Sullen and gloomy.
Noxious	Harmful or poisonous.
Onerous	Burdensome; involving much effort.
Plethora	An excessive amount.
Quagmire	A difficult or complex situation.
Reticent	Not revealing thoughts or feelings easily.
Supercilious	Acting superior to others.
Taciturn	Reserved or saying little.
Unctuous	Excessively flattering; oily.
Vehement	Showing strong feelings.
Waive	To give up a right or claim.
Xenophile	Someone attracted to foreign cultures.
Yokel	A simple, unsophisticated person from the countryside.
Zephyr	A gentle breeze.
Affable	Friendly and easy to talk to.
Belligerent	Warlike; aggressive.
Cogitate	To think deeply.
Dilettante	An amateur in a field of interest.
Exacerbate	To make worse.
Garrulous	Excessively talkative.
Heuristic	Enabling someone to learn or discover for themselves.
Impetuous	Acting quickly without thought.
Juggernaut	A powerful, unstoppable force.
Limerence	The state of being infatuated.
Multifarious	Of many types.
Nihilism	The belief that life is meaningless.
Ostentatious	Showy; designed to impress.
Pragmatic	Practical; focused on real-world results.
Querulous	Complaining in a whining manner.
Salubrious	Health-giving; healthy.
Terse	Brief and to the point.
Unabashed	Not embarrassed or ashamed.
Verisimilitude	The appearance of being true or real.
Wizened	Shriveled or wrinkled with age.
Xylophonic	Relating to the xylophone.
Yaw	To twist or oscillate around a vertical axis.
Zenith	The highest point; peak.
Amalgamate	To combine or unite.
Bucolic	Relating to the countryside; rural.
Compendium	A collection of concise information.